

Characters:

- Edward Tulane — a china rabbit
- Abilene Tulane — an eight year old girl
- *Mr. and Mrs. Tulane - Abilene's parents of middle age upper class
- *Rosie the dog- neighbor dog on Egypt Street.
- *The Maid - a gruff looking woman
- Pellegrina - Abilene's grandmother who purchased Edward.
- *Princess who loved no one- young woman. Vain and self centered.
- *Witch- old woman wise but vengeful.
- Lawrence - an elderly man who is a fisherman
- Nellie - Lawrence's wife (mature age)
- *Lolly - a young woman, jealous of Edward
- *Ernest - an insane vagrant
- Lucy - a scrappy dog
- Bull - a homeless individual
- *Fisherman- a fellow fisherman who works with Lawrence on the boat.
- *Hank, Tuck, and Jack - other homeless people
- *Trainmaster - a young individual enforcing the rules
- *Fannie- an old country woman
- Bryce - a boy of 10 or 12
- Sara Ruth - a sickly young girl of 7 or 8
- Martin- a boy on the cruise ship who takes Edward.
- Amos- the other boy on the ship responsible for taking Edward.
- *Lady on ship-compliments Edward as finely made.
- *First girl- asks Abilene to borrow Edward on ship.
- *Second girl- promises to be nice with Edward on ship.
- Luther (their father) - a man drowning in grief and anger
- Lucius Clarke - an elderly doll repairman who takes pride in his work
- Maggie - a little girl of eight years old who looks and dresses much like young Abilene.
- Narrator/Grown up Abilene - A woman that seems familiar due to the style of her clothes to Abilene but only faintly. We do not discover that she is the narrator until the very end of the show. She wears Edward's watch as a locket around her neck but this is hidden from sight and tucked under her shirt until it is revealed in the final scene.
- *A small child and their mother- appears in Memphis
- *Man wearing a suit- Memphis
- *Old woman with a cane- Memphis
- *Marlene- Waitress at Neal's Diner
- *Neal- owner and cook at the diner in Memphis
- Grace- a 100 year old doll
- *Natalie- a doll shop customer
- *Father-Natalie's father
- *Doll 1
- *Doll 2

